CMPMO No.210 of 2007.

21.9.2007. Present: Mr. H.K. Bhardwaj, Advocate, for the petitioner.

After hearing Mr. Bhardwaj, learned counsel appearing for the petitioner and on going through the impugned order, I feel satisfied that no fault can be found with the approach adopted by the learned Court below in first asking for the evidence of the plaintiff and thereafter to decide whether, in view of the changed circumstances to appoint a Local Commissioner or not to visit the spot.

The petition is dismissed in limine.

CMP No.773 of 2007.

In view of the dismissal of the main petition, this application shall also stand dismissed.

21st September, 2007. (V.K. Gupta), C.J.

(tr)